Morning Tom, the boiler stopped working last night. No hot water and the heating is off. 08:02

The pressure gauge is reading zero. I have not touched anything. 08:05

Morning Maya, sorry to hear that. Can you send me a photo of the display? 08:41

It is showing F22 and a flashing red light. 08:45

Thanks. F22 is low pressure. I have called Harris Plumbing and they can come tomorrow between 10 and 12. 09:10

Tomorrow works. I will be home all morning. 09:12

Great. If it gets cold tonight there is an electric heater in the hall cupboard. 09:13

Found it, thank you. 09:15

The plumber has been. He said the expansion vessel has failed and the part needs ordering. 12:20

He topped the pressure up for now so we have hot water again, but it may drop. 12:22

Good that it is running. Did he say how long the part takes? 12:40

Three to five working days. He left a quote on the kitchen table. 12:41

Got it. I will approve the quote today. 13:05

Thanks Tom. 13:06

FRIDAY, 16 JANUARY 2026

Pressure dropped to 0.5 again this evening. I topped it up the way he showed me. 18:30

Thanks for keeping an eye on it. The part has been dispatched. 18:52

MONDAY, 19 JANUARY 2026

Harris can fit the new vessel on Thursday at 9. Does that suit? 09:15

Thursday at 9 is fine. 09:31

Perfect, I will confirm with them. 09:32

THURSDAY, 22 JANUARY 2026

All done. New vessel fitted and the pressure has held at 1.5 all morning. 11:48

He also bled the radiator in the back bedroom, which had not been getting warm. 11:50

Excellent. Thank you for being so patient with it. 12:03

No problem. Thanks for sorting it so quickly. 12:05

I will send the invoice over for your records. 12:06

Invoice-HP-2291.pdf 12:30

Received, thanks. 12:34

MONDAY, 26 JANUARY 2026

Just to confirm the heating has been fine all week. 19:10

Good to hear. Have a good weekend. 19:25
